* Three of these Physicians are employed attending the Patients in the wards of the Hospital, and are called Intern Physicians.

Three others visit the applicants for admission into the Hospital, to ascertain their fitness for hospital treatment, and order, when necessary, their habitations to be whitewashed; these are called Extern Physicians.

The Physicians perform these duties alternately every two months.

Besides the foregoing Six Physicians, there are two Temporary Physicians, appointed without salary, who are called on to attend when any of the Permanent Physicians are unavoidably absent, from sickness or other cause, or in cases of unusual increase of Patients, by reason of epidemic.

The items for the respective Professors' Salaries have been increased in this Estimate to 300*l.* per annum each, in conformity with the Resolution of the Society passed on 27th January 1842, and grounded on the Report of the Select Committee of the House of Commons in the year 1836, on the Royal Dublin Society, pages 8 and 9, expressing the opinion "that the present Salaries of the Professors did not afford adequate remuneration for their services."

L. E. Fort, Hon. Secretary.

A statement of the proceedings of the Dublin Society has been already directed to be laid before The House, which will show the steps taken by the Society for complying with the recommendations of the Committee of 1836.
